To Whom It May Concern:

Having Rhonda Larson as a guest artist with the Rogue Valley Symphony was utterly delightful. She has an abundance of talent, a creative mind and an exceptional stage presence. She was very easy to work with and brought an excitement and a positive energy on stage. Although she will add her special touch to just about any work of the standard repertoire, I would recommend to my colleagues to have Rhonda perform some of her own music. Our audiences were captivated by her Be Still My Soul. Every time we played the piece, the hall fell into a complete reverie. Rhonda is a dedicated pro, absolutely immersed in music and she brings extended virtuosic techniques to the art of flute playing. She will add a unique musical experience to your season and the audience will fall head over heels for her music.
